The Israeli "Friends" - with a twist. Srugim ('Knitted') is the hit TV series that follows the lives of a group of 30-something modern Orthodox singles as they navigate love, friendship and faith in contemporary Jerusalem.

Brimming with romantic tension, humorous situations and well-drawn characters, it is not hard to see why the stereotype-busting 'Srugim' has been such a success among Israelis of all stripes, secular and religious alike.

Admission £17.50

Students £12.50
