SEUDA SHLISHIT

The summer series of Seudot Shlishit begins this week (although its not so summery yet). Seuda will take place every other week – the whole kehilla is welcome to attend for food and drink, singing and divrei Torah. This week's seuda is sponsored by Rachel and Elliott Cohen to mark his mother's yahtzeit. If you would like to sponsor a future seuda, please speak to Guv Lebens.

ALEI TZION AGM

Alei Tzion's AGM will take place on Sunday 13th May at the shul at 9am. As well as the elections and reports from the past year, we will be using the AGM as an opportunity to discuss issues regarding the future and direction of the shul. We would love to see as many people there as possible to make it a more useful discussion.

RABBI MICHAEL BROYDE

Rabbi Michael Broyde, Dayan on the Beth Din of America and one of Modern-Orthodoxy's most skilled halachists, will be giving a shiur in the shul on Sunday 13th May at 11.30am. His topic is: Tripping the blind and sharing our vision of Judaism: Lifnei Iver in the Kiruv (and other) Contexts of Modern Times.
Donation: Members - £3 / Non-Members - £5.

GRAND INTER-SYNAGOGAL QUIZ – PRETTY MUCH EVERYTHING TBC

There's going to be a quiz. It's going to involve us and another shul, possibly other shuls, but due to the scale and complexity of what's being planned as you read this, neither the date nor the location nor the exact nature of the event can be detailed yet. Just block out the whole of summer in your diaries.
