THE COMING YEAR AT ALEI TZION

The Board of Management is currently considering the kehillah's values and how the coming year's programme and activities will reflect those values. If you would like to help in this process and give your thoughts to one of the values and how it should be implemented, please reply to this email stating which one: commitment to learning, support of the State of Israel, serious and soulful tefillah, warm and welcoming atmosphere, family orientated, engagement with the wider community, Modern Orthodox or women. Someone will then contact you.

In addition, you will have an opportunity to contribute at the AGM on Sunday 11th May at 9am.

If you would like to be involved by becoming a Board member for the coming year, please speak to Michelle Bauernfreund.
