Alei Tzion Book Club

"Widely hailed as the fiction debut of 2017, Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman is a triumph of deft observation of everyday life. By turns laugh-aloud funny and deeply poignant, it is a book that champions everyday courage and the importance of friendship in a world where people are increasingly isolated. Challenging the stigmas that exist around loneliness in contemporary society, it is a gentle reminder of those we too easily overlook and how a life can be changed by small acts of kindness."

The Book club meets again after Pesach. Date to be confirmed

New Children's Services

Our new format of children's services includes:

Nut and Sesame Free Zone – Allergy Policy

Please do not bring snacks to shul that contain either of these foods and especially please avoid bamba. If any other children have life threatening allergies, please let us know so that we can keep everyone safe!
