MITZVAH DAY 2013 AT ALEI TZION

Alei Tzion is participating in Mitzvah Day 2013 which will be on Sunday 17th November. There will be three opportunities to get involved with Alei Tzion:

1. Toy collection for Camp Simcha and Jewish Women's Aid.

We will be collecting toys to be given to children through Camp Simcha and Jewish Women's Aid. We need new toys or toys in perfect condition and gift bags or wrapping paper. Please bring the toys, wrapping and your children along at 9.30am to the shul to sort, pack and decorate!

2. Mitzvah Mummies (and Daddies)

We are looking for Mums (and Dads) with young babies to visit a local care home and bring a little joy to the residents. This will take place in the week leading up to Mitzvah Day and is the launch of an ongoing rota. If you would like to come along, please speak to Gaby Lebens.

3. Making lunch at St Mungo's, Swiss Cottage.

We are looking for 5 volunteers to make lunch at St. Mungo's Homeless Shelter on Sunday 17th. Our aim is to give practical help to the shelter, learn more about what the charity does and build a connection with it. This activity will be repeated every other month. For more information speak to Stuart Izon on stuart.izon@gmail.com.

THE GREAT ALEI CHOLENT COOK OFF

On Shabbat 30th November, Shabbat Chanukah, Alei Tzion will be hosting a cholent making competition where members of the community will be going against each other to see who can brew the best stew! For more details, please speak to Guv Lebens.
