The Female Jew: Options for the 21st Century

A brand new educational roadshow is coming to a shul near you exploring matters relating to a woman's experience of being Jewish. From Kiddush to Kaddish, it will look at the historical journey of selected examples of ritual female engagement to help understand the options for the female Jew within communal and family life in the 21st century.

The roadshow will be at the following synagogues delivered by Rabbis and women educators and is open to all:

Hampstead Garden Suburb United Synagogue, Norrice Lea, London, N2 0RE
Mill Hill United Synagogue, Station Road, London, NW7 2JU
